

TOGETHER, WE REWROTE THE SCRIPT

“I bounced between foster homes and schools. At my Simon Youth Academy, I finally found teachers who saw my potential. I’m now the first in my family to graduate high school.”

Dominique spent years in the foster care system, attending four different high schools. At the Simon Youth Academy, she found stability, support, and the belief that she could graduate. Now, she’s a freshman in college.

You can help students like Dominique rewrite their story. Scan to support foster youth and first-gen graduates. Together, We Graduate.

Dominique
Simon Youth Academy Graduate

TOGETHER, WE FOUND A WAY OUT

“I was homeless, depressed, and ready to drop out. But my Simon Youth Academy never gave up on me.”

Jalen faced homelessness during his junior year. At his Academy, he found food, friendship, and a path forward. He just earned his welding certification and is on track to start a new career.

Your support builds futures, one student, one skill at a time. Scan to help more students like Jalen gain career-ready training. Together, We Graduate.

Jalen
Simon Youth Academy Graduate

TOGETHER, WE BEAT THE ODDS

“When I became a mom at 16, people told me I had to give up on school. My Simon Youth Academy made it possible to keep going—and now I’m headed to college.”

Ana was a teen mom who thought her education was over. At her Simon Youth Academy, she was able to attend class while her baby was in daycare next door. She’s now a proud graduate.

Your gift gives students like Ana a second chance. Scan to empower young parents to finish school and pursue dreams. Together, We Graduate.

Ana
Simon Youth Academy Graduate

TOGETHER, WE BROUGHT BACK THE LIGHT

“I’ve dealt with depression for years. My Simon Youth Academy was a safe space. I’m proud to say I graduated and want to help others do the same.”

Marcus struggled with anxiety and depression. At his Academy, teachers took time to check in and made space for his healing. He’s now heading to college with a scholarship.

Mental health matters. So does your support. Scan to help students like Marcus succeed—inside and outside the classroom. Together, We Graduate.

Marcus
Simon Youth Academy Graduate

TOGETHER, WE BUILT A NEW FUTURE

“My teachers helped me stay on track and never judged me. Today, I’m a graduate and a role model to my younger siblings.”

Laila moved to the U.S. at 15, speaking very little English. Her Academy gave her one-on-one help and celebrated her culture. This spring, she became a first-generation graduate.

Every student deserves to be understood. Scan to support language learners like Laila on their path to graduation. Together, We Graduate.

Laila
Simon Youth Academy Graduate

TOGETHER, WE GAVE HIM ANOTHER CHANCE

“After getting expelled, I thought that was it. But my Academy gave me a second chance. I graduated early and got into trade school for welding.”

Ethan had been expelled from his previous school. At a Simon Youth Academy, he was given another shot—and made the most of it.

A second chance can change everything. Scan to help students like Ethan turn setbacks into success. Together, We Graduate.

Ethan
Simon Youth Academy Graduate

